

I am writing in support of XM Radio's right to broadcast freely. I do not see how restricting satellite broadcast benefits the public. Action such as this only reinforces the belief that politicians are bought and paid for.